Departmental Examination for confirmation of Inspectors

PAPER-III (ADMINISTRATION)

Take the following Model Questions & Test your preparation for Departmental Examination to be held from 08.12.2015 to 11.12.2015

Q.No.1 In what circumstances may a Government servant be transferred to another post carrying a lesser pay? Explain with an example.

Q.No.2 A Government servant under suspension is paid Subsistence Allowance at half of his salary. Is he liable to pay licence fee based on his full salary? Are any amounts due from him as licence fee if he is reinstated and the difference between his regular salary and his Subsistent Allowance is paid to him in full?

Q.No.3 A Group ‘C’ Government servant who has completed 55 years of age gave three months’ notice of his intention to retire from service under FR-56(k), to the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority refused to grant him permission to retire on the ground that the Government servant was not good in his work. Comment.

Q.No.4 An official transferred at his own request from Station ‘A’ to Station ‘B’ involving a distance of 500km was relieved from his old post on 15th July, A/n. He joins at the new station on 21st July, F/N. He claims duty pay and allowances for the period from 16th to 20th July. Comment?

Q.No.5 A Government servant is having 220 days of earned leave to his credit. What is the effect of dismissal or removal or resignation on the leave at credit of the Government servant?

Q.No.6 A Government servant on leave other than leave preparatory to retirement applies for permission to take up another employment. The Competent Authority permitted the Government servant to take up the other employment. Comment?

Q.No.7 Can a pension once sanctioned be withheld or withdrawn subsequently? If so, under what circumstances and by whom?

Q.No.8 A Government servant remained absent from duty unauthorizedly for two days. Will this entail forfeiture of past service for the purpose of pension? If so, how can the past service are allowed to count as qualifying service?

Q.No.9 What is the effect of Commutation of Pension by a pensioner on (i) the pension payable to him, (ii) Family Pension, 1964?
Q.No.10 Under the GPF Rules, on the death of a subscriber who has left behind a family, but had no nomination, the amount of Rs.1,00,000/- standing to his credit in the GPF is payable to the members of his family in the equal shares. What is the exception to this rule?

Q.No.11 Conveyance Allowance was granted to an official with effect from 1-11-2010, for a period of 2 years. On 1-1-2011, the official was transferred to a post in the administrative branch not required to travel. However, the Conveyance Allowance was continued to be paid to the official. Discuss the admissibility of Conveyance Allowance from 1-1-2011.

Q.No.12 Comment on the following:-

(a) A Government servant residing at a place 12km away from his office is detained for some temporary work on a working day at a place situated at a distance of 5km from his residence. He is not required to attend his headquarters office on that day. He claims one D.A. for absence from his residence from 10.00 hrs on that day.

(b) A Government servant on tour arrived at the headquarters at 06.15 hrs and claimed 0.7 D.A. The Scheduled arrival time of the train is 06.00 hrs and the train was late by 15 minutes. The claim was disallowed by the Controlling Officer.

(c) A Government servant leaves his residence at 11.40a.m on 7-10- for journey on tour to Mumbai. The train leaves at 12.10 p.m. He claims full D.A for 7-10-.

Q.No.13 How will you regulate the Leave Travel Concession claim of a Government servant to visit his home town with his family once in a block of two calendar years in the following circumstances?

(a) The headquarters of the Government servant and his ‘home town’ are connected by rail but the Government servant and his family members perform both outward and return journeys by private conveyance.

Q.No.14 A Government servant who has not availed the LTC to visit home town for the block years 2010 to 2011 and to visit ‘any place in India’ for the block years ‘2010 to 2013’, desires to avail the LTC to visit his home town as well as to visit any place in India during 2012. Is it admissible? If so how?

Q.No.15 Comment on the following:-

(a) A Government servant who had not taken any LTC advance completes the return journey on 1-11-2012 and submits his bill on 5-2-2013 pleading for relaxation.